

Fiction Book Report Template

Book Title _____ # of Pages _____

Author _____

The genre is _____. Some characteristics of this genre are

The purpose of this book is _____

The point of view used in this book is _____.

Why do you think the author chose this POV? How does it affect the book?

The Plot: Identify the key events that advance the plot. Be sure to identify the central conflict/problem, the climax, and explain the resolution.

Character Analysis: Analyze the main character considering his/her thoughts, actions, the narrator's description of the character, and other character's reactions or thoughts about the character. Consider the character's motivation (why she does what she does) and the character's reaction to problems.

Meeting the Needs of Diverse Learners

Setting: Describe the setting (place and time) and how the setting creates the mood and tone of the text.

Theme: What is the theme (author's message about life and human behavior)? Is this a recurring theme you've seen in any other books? Explain.

Literary Devices: Discuss at least one literary device the author uses (metaphor, imagery, symbolism, irony) and how it affects the story.

Tone and Mood: Discuss the overall tone and mood of the novel, giving examples to justify your interpretation.
